Members of the Austin School for the Performing and Visual Arts (ASPVA) dance company competed in the Talent on Parade contest hosted in Hays CISD Performing Arts Center Sunday, February 17. The girls came home with top honors for each of their three performances, and were awarded “Most Graceful” for their lyrical number choreographed by director, Pamela Nichols. Christen Uselton performed a solo to “Bubbly” and won first place. She was also offered a scholarship to perform at Nationals in Missouri. The team will host auditions in May for the 2008-2009 season. Please contact 773-3398 or visit www.theaustinschool.org for more information.
